Greetings!

Our Long Island Torch Runs started June 1st as our local Law Enforcement ran the torch from Montauk to East Hampton. A few days later, on June 6th, the torch made its way through both Nassau & Suffolk County into Farmingdale State College as both legs came together. Thank you to all our Long Island Law Enforcement who ran in our Annual Torch Run to spread awareness and raise funds for our Long Island Special Olympics NY Athletes!

A few of our athletes having some fun all while raising money for the Special Olympics. Come in before June 24th to get your 5 dollar bracelet!

We would like to thank the Town of Oyster Bay PAL Athletic Complex and the Nassau County PAL Special Needs Unit for hosting our basketball tournament on June 3rd. All the athletes competed very well and had a very successful event.

Another big thanks to the Levittown Elks and South Levittown Lanes for hosting our bowling tournament on Sunday June 4th. Another great day of competition, looking forward to next year!
