

MEET SPECIAL OLYMPICS NY ATHLETE

Cori Piels

Cori has been training and competing with Special Olympics NY for more than 20 years as a figure skater. Cori is grateful for Special Olympics, which has given her a home. She has competed locally, regionally, and nationally, bringing home many gold medals along the way. Cori is an athlete leader, determined to educate the world about acceptance, inclusion, diversity, and how to live a healthy and fun life!

Cori will compete in figure skating at the upcoming 2025 World Winter Games in Bardonecchia, Pragelato, Sestriere, and Turin, Italy from March 8-15, 2025. The event will include 1,500 athletes, 621 coaches, 2,000 volunteers, and more than 100,000 spectators.
